Relative Contributions

The respective boards of Banco Popolare and BPM agreed that, taking into account their respective contributions, the Merger will be executed on the basis of exchange ratios calculated applying the following relative contributions to the share capital:

- (i) 54.626% of the NewCo share capital pertaining to the current shareholders of Banco Popolare (the “BP Relative Contribution”).
- (ii) 45.374% of the NewCo share capital pertaining to the current shareholders of BPM (the “BPM Relative Contribution” and, together with BP Relative Contribution, the “Relative Contributions”);

The Relative Contributions have been calculated:

- (a) taking into account the entire Capital Increase (thus, no adjustment will be carried out to the above contributions following the execution of the Capital Increase); and

The exchange ratios of the Merger will be determined after the number of shares of Banco Popolare to be issued in the context of the Capital Increase are defined and such to comply with the above-mentioned Relative Contributions.

Support to territory of traditional presence

The NewCo, coherently with the nature and the origins of Banco Popolare and BPM will continue to focus on the territory served by its own distribution network. In that respect, it is envisaged that the Board of Directors of the NewCo, subject to the vote of Shareholders' general meeting, may allocate a portion of up to 2.5% of net profit arising from the approved financial statements to welfare, charitable and public interest causes, in order to support initiatives related to the specific territories of reference.

Effectiveness of the Merger

Subject to the law authorisations and approval of their respective Shareholders' meetings, it is envisaged that the Merger will be effective, pursuant to Art. 2504-bis, paragraph 1 and 2, of the Italian Civil Code, from the date of the last registration required by Art. 2504 of the Italian Civil Code or from a later date which may be expressly stated in the merger deed.
